Workation Destinations

The desire for a change of scenery is taking people on extended stays that combine business and leisure. Consider these three destinations to embrace working remotely.

THE NAUTILUS

Work from paradise in a private beach house at The Nautilus, Maldives. An exclusive workation package offers a private sandbank that serves as an office with a desk, shaded canopy and high-speed Wi-Fi, a personal assistant, holistic education programme for guests with children and more for a minimum seven-night stay. Leisure activities such as guided reef snorkelling tours, private yoga sessions and sunset dolphin cruises are also included.

CHEVAL BLANC PARIS

The highly anticipated Cheval Blanc Paris opens its doors in the heart of the French capital this September. Overlooking the picturesque Seine, the LVMH development has 26 rooms, 46 suites and four restaurants. Guests can enjoy the Dior Spa Cheval Blanc Paris, with its six treatment rooms for bespoke rituals, swimming pool and state-of-the-art exercise facilities. Families are also warmly welcomed here - Dior Spa Cheval Blanc Paris, is a dedicated area for children, celebrating the family spirit of Cheval Blanc Maisons.

THE HARI HONG KONG

Bridging the commercial district of Causeway Bay and the vibrant design scene of Wan Chai, The Hari Hong Kong is an ideal location for a workation. There are 210 guest rooms, including three signature rooftop suites, designed by Tara Bernard, the founder and CEO of Tara Bernard & Partners, to look and feel like a home away from home. Although it is under a year old, the hotel is already regarded by locals as a culinary destination for Japanese restaurant and terrace bar Zoku and Italian restaurant Lucciola.
