

LM

LUXURY MAGAZINE

SPRING/SUMMER 2021

Don't neglect the garage! California Closets has expanded from the bedroom to offer many attractive, customizable storage solutions for tools, equipment, gardening implements, and other things that usually live in this all-important part of the house. Price upon request; californiaclosets.com

WineCab is a sophisticated wine management system that stores 175-plus bottles and has a unique seven-axis robotic arm for retrieving them. It even has an AI virtual sommelier. Available in 6-, 11-, and 15-foot widths. From $179,000; winecab.com

Fiona Barratt-Campbell answers the proverbial conundrum "Where to hide the TV" with the customizable Armour Media Unit for her firm FBC London. It features a hand-worked bronze panel inspired by ancient Roman jewelry. From $16,920; fbc-london.com

Tristan Auer's Grant De Luxe collection poufs for Poltrona Frau include a rectangular version with concealed storage. The leather used for the lattice design comes in no less than 73 ColorSphere shades. From $4,900; poltronafrau.com

For its 60th anniversary, the Parisian fragrance house Diptyque dips into its decorative arts origins with the Entertaining Geometry collection, which includes three sizes of storage boxes in a graphic, black-and-white pattern. $195/set of three; diptyqueparis.com ♦